

Frequently Asked Questions

What is Celebrate Charles: Restaurant Week?

Celebrate Charles: Restaurant Week is a week-long promotion to highlight the numerous and diverse dining options within the Charles County community. Restaurant weeks are designed to help boost business during what is typically a slower time of the year. During Celebrate Charles: Restaurant Week restaurants offer fixed price multi-course meals or specially priced single dishes below $15 for lunch and $30 for dinner, to give diners the opportunity to experience the area's dining scene without breaking the bank.

When is Celebrate Charles: Restaurant Week?

Celebrate Charles: Restaurant Week is Monday, April 1, 2013 thru Sunday, April 7, 2013.

Where is Celebrate Charles: Restaurant Week?

Celebrate Charles: Restaurant Week is taking place in various restaurants all over Charles County!

Are all restaurants in Charles County participating in Celebrate Charles: Restaurant Week?

Not all restaurants are participating in Celebrate Charles: Restaurant Week. Please contact a restaurant directly to find whether or not they are participating in Celebrate Charles: Restaurant Week

How does Celebrate Charles: Restaurant Week work?

Simply visit a participating restaurant between April 1-7, 2013 to take advantage of the special Celebrate Charles: Restaurant Week pricing and promotions!

Should I make reservations?

Call the restaurants directly to find out if reservations are required or recommended.

Are all restaurants offering both lunch and dinner promotions?

Not all participating restaurants offer both lunch and dinner menus as a part of Celebrate Charles: Restaurant Week.

What if I don't want to order off the special menu for Restaurant Week? Will restaurants offer their regular menus as well?

Yes, restaurants will still offer their normal menus during this time.

Please note:

- Restaurants reserve the rights to not allow Celebrate Charles: Restaurant Week promotions to be combined with other coupons, discounts, or promotions.
- Prices and offerings are subject to change based on availability.
- Tax, gratuity, beverages, and alcohol are not included in Celebrate Charles: Restaurant Week pricing.